

fight to strengthen healthcare for veterans, combat pollution in the Gulf of Mexico, and end Federal subsidies for tobacco, among other priorities.

After Krueger's Senate term ended, President Bill Clinton appointed him Ambassador to Burundi. At the time, Burundi was suffering from intense violence and political conflict, and the assignment represented deep faith in Krueger's diplomatic abilities. Krueger served in Burundi until 1995, when his convoy was ambushed by gunmen in an assassination attempt due to his vocal opposition to the genocide. On his courage, President Bill Clinton remarked, "... if we didn't have brave people there, like Ambassador Bob Krueger, it would be even harder to avoid human tragedy." From 1996 to 1999, Krueger served as U.S. Ambassador to Botswana and later as a Special U.S. Representative to the Southern African Development Community (SADC) from 1998 to 2000. After an accomplished career in public service, Krueger returned to academia and retired in 2017, living out his days in New Braunfels at the same house in which he grew up.

Madam Speaker, I join my fellow Texans in mourning the loss of a stalwart patriot and public servant. Senator Bob Krueger's career took him around the world, but he never lost sight of his deep roots in Texas. My thoughts are with his wife of 39 years, Kathleen, his children, Mariana, Sarah and Christian, and all those who knew and loved him.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF NICK TULLIER, EAST BATON ROUGE SHERIFF'S DEPUTY

HON. CLAY HIGGINS

OF LOUISIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 6, 2022

Mr. HIGGINS of Louisiana. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and service of my Thin Blue Line brother Nick Tullier.

Nick served his state and community honorably as a patrol deputy with the East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Department.

A member of the Thin Blue Line for nearly two decades, Nick Tullier was critically injured in the line of duty on July 17, 2016. While responding to a call in Baton Rouge, Nick and his fellow deputies were ambushed in a targeted attack against law enforcement.

Nick was shot three times. By all accounts, he was not supposed to live. He did.

Though paralyzed due to the injuries, Nick defied every expectation over the last 6 years.

He was a fighter. His spirit was strong, and he never gave up. Nick fought until the very end.

On May 5, 2022, Nick Tullier's watch ended. We all mourn his passing. However, we also celebrate Nick's life.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."—John 15:13 KJV

Nick was selfless and acted with love for his fellow man. He put his own life on the line to protect the community he had sworn to serve.

I am blessed to have known Nick and to have shared a few brief hours in the course of his journey. He is survived by his parents, his two sons, two brothers, and five nephews. They are all in our prayers.

Many times, I have prayed for Nick, for his family, and for healing. Our prayers are with them now in this time of mourning.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the citizens of the State of Louisiana, I pay tribute to the life, commitment, and sacrifice of Nick Tullier. May his legacy and his service to the Thin Blue Line never be forgotten.

HONORING THE SERVICE OF
SAVANNAH A. VAN DYKE BELLO

HON. MARK DeSAULNIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 6, 2022

Mr. DeSAULNIER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize long-time community member Savannah Van Dyke Bello, as she celebrates her 100th birthday.

Savannah was born in Idabel, Oklahoma to Richard and Rebecca Van Dyke. Savannah later moved to California where she met her husband, Albert Bello, and the couple became parents to three children.

Throughout her life, Savannah has demonstrated her dedication to public service and civic education. After overcoming tuberculosis herself and noting the stigma behind the disease, Savannah enrolled in nursing school. She worked as a nurse at the Contra Costa County Medical Center from 1961 until her retirement in 1984. Additionally, throughout the 1960s and 1970s, Savannah was involved in the civil rights movement. She was and continues to be passionate about helping the Black community to connect with their history. Savannah has shown her passion for bettering her community in many ways, including as a member of the Richmond Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) in the 1960s, working with the American Red Cross for over 20 years, and engaging in local, statewide, and national elections. Savannah is also a writer and her book, "Savannah . . . Unexpected Turns" describes 20th century American history through her own lens.

In her personal life, Savannah is a proud Catholic and attends Saint David of Wales Catholic Church in Richmond, California. She loves attending Bible study to connect more with her faith. Savannah also enjoys quilting, writing poetry, and spending time with her three children, three granddaughters, and nine great-grandchildren.

Savannah is a leader in our community and is respected for her intellect and compassion. Please join me in congratulating Savannah on her 100th birthday and her lifetime of service.

HONORING MARTHA HEIDE FOR HER SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF SOUTHWEST OHIO

HON. MICHAEL R. TURNER

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 6, 2022

Mr. TURNER. Madam Speaker, I want to pay tribute to a long-time staff member and dear friend, Mrs. Marty Heide, who left my office at the end of April to begin her well-deserved retirement.

Marty and I have worked together for over 33 years. She started her career as an employee at my downtown Dayton, Ohio law firm, and worked in my office during my two terms as mayor of Dayton.

After I was elected to Congress in 2003, Marty spent the next 19 years serving the citizens of Southwest Ohio as a caseworker in my district office, and as District Outreach and Director of Special Events for Greene County.

Marty Heide has touched the hearts of everyone who has had the good fortune to know her and to work with her. She has earned a reputation as an experienced, knowledgeable and sympathetic caseworker who never hesitated to go above and beyond the call of duty to help a constituent, listen to their concerns, work toward a solution—and more often than not, a successful outcome.

Marty was responsible for organizing the annual Congressional Art Competition, to showcase the artistic talents of high school students in the Dayton area. She also directed my Military Service Academy Board, spending countless hours mentoring some of our best and brightest young people, and selecting the future leaders of our Armed Forces for nominations to our Nation's military academies.

Marty has helped literally thousands of my constituents cut through the maze of the Federal bureaucracy—whether they were seniors having trouble obtaining their Social Security or Medicare benefits, or helping to expedite the renewal of a passport, or solving problems with tax returns, or helping a future citizen obtain a green card.

Madam Speaker, I cannot tell you how many times a happy constituent has told me about how Marty helped them, or a close family member, resolve a problem.

The president of the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra once contacted my office with an urgent request for an expedited visa to allow a musical group from Canada, Jeans n Classics, to perform for Dayton's annual Summer in the City Musical Festival. He sent me a message, saying that "Marty did a fantastic job in getting this issue resolved quickly and efficiently. We are very, very grateful for Marty's prompt, helpful, and courteous assistance."
